COUNCIL CALENDAR

HAS FEW MATTERS

No Legislation Of Importance
Pending and Awaiting Action

When council opens its session on Monday evening, little will be found upon the calendar that promises to keep the members long in session. There is no legislation of importance that is pending.

There have been certain intimations of a purpose to increase the salaries of the mayor and service director. While this action legally may be taken, perhaps, any time before these officers take the oath, it may be done with greater propriety before the November election than after.

Trimming of shade trees, the branches of which hang too low, and the removal of rough places in East High street are two subjects that will be brought up for discussion.

The jurors recessed at 11:15 o'clock until 1 o'clock this afternoon when the examination of witnesses commenced.
